

Cedric Williams, Ph.D.

Overview of Coaching

Dr. Cedric Williams is a licensed clinical and consulting psychologist who integrates psychology and leader development models to help individuals, teams, and organizations move toward occupational thriving. Dr. Williams has experience in executive and organizational assessment, executive coaching, and consulting. His research interests include multicultural competence, occupational thriving, and leadership. Dr. Williams has also served on the executive board of the American Psychological Association's Division 13, Society of Consulting Psychology as the DEI chairperson. He was awarded the Society's 2021 DEI Excellence award for his successful work in this domain.

Background and Experience

Dr. Williams has served in the United States Army (active and reserve) for over 20 years. He is an Airborne and Ranger qualified Infantry Officer, who has provided leadership to soldiers in a variety of positions. His current army reserve position is an Assistant Professor in the Behavioral Sciences and Leadership department at the United States Military Academy at West Point, where he teaches a course titled "Psychology for Leaders".

Sample Businesses, Engagements

Government
Education
Pharmaceuticals
Information Services

Areas of Specialization

DE&I: Women
DE&I: Other
Emotional Intelligence
Team Coaching/Development

Education & Training

Ph.D., Fuller Theological Seminary
M.A., Fuller Theological Seminary
M.A., Lincoln Christian University
B.A., Illinois State University

Qualifications

Faculty: United States Military Academy, West Point
Assessments: EQ-I 2.0, Enneagram Personality Test, Hogan Suite, MBTI: Basics